Clemenceau Unruffled Over Lansing's Treaty Comment

PARIS, March 22.-Former Premier Clemenceau, who has just returned from a tiger hunting trip in India, refused today to comment upon the criticisms of himself written by Robert Lansing, former American Secretary of State and member of the American delegation to the peace con-ference. Mr. Lansing had said that M. Clemenceau was a cynical and pineering figure.

"When any one speaks ill of me, that is all right," said the ex-premier. "It is only when ony one speaks good of me that I begin to worry."

Asked if he would re-enter active political life, "The Tiger" replied:
"I saw Buddhist gods in India. They sat cross legged, not concerning them-selves with the affairs of others. That is the policy I intend to pursue."

organizations will be called together by Chairman Leese within the next week in order to speed up the plans of the committee as a whole.

The committee is made up of regularly acquedited representatives of the Board of Trade. Chamber of Commerce, Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, the City Club, Women's lity Club, the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis Club Federation of itizens' Associations.
